

flair-y Tale Partnerships

As an official Salesforce partner, flair taps into the CRM's highly adaptable global management platform, resulting in an HR and recruitment solution that truly stands out in the market.

We are now providing Salesforce system integrators and consultants the chance to broaden their services and offer future-proofing HR features to their clients.

The Benefits of a flair Partnership

Win New Logos

Expand your ISV portfolio and offer HR features on Salesforce. Attract new customers and increase revenue streams.

Stay Relevant for Existing Customers

You've got this! Offer flair just like Salesforce Sales Cloud, Service Cloud, and Marketing Cloud.

Compelling Referral Program

Turn leads into financial wins through our attractive referral program, boosting your earnings and expanding your network.

Access to Diverse Markets

Gain access to our customer base in DACH, Benelux, US, UKI, and Australia, expanding your reach and opening up new conversations.

Expand Project Scope

Enhance customer projects by incorporating core HR functionalities such as time tracking, absence management, and employee engagement.

Generate High Margins

With a hassle-free, no-code implementation process, you can enjoy high margins on projects. Anyone skilled in Salesforce can easily implement flair.

Long-Term Maintainable Projects

Build custom flows and integrations as needed by customers. Ensure long-term scalability and customer satisfaction with the help of flair.

Mid-Market/Enterprise Projects

Be part of our mid-market and enterprise implementation projects. Scale your business and access larger opportunities.
